

National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women

Montréal Massacre Memorial

Saturday December 1, 2018 10:00am - 6:00pm

Central Branch of Vancouver Public Library
350 West Georgia Street

Roundtable Room	Lectures and Panel Room	Multimedia Room
10:00am 45 Years of Working to Improve the Criminal Justice System's Response to Women Victims of Male Violence	10:00am Poetry as Loaded Gun Poet Dominique Christina	10:00am Sign up to be part of our Feminist Podcast
	11:30am Feminism as Revolution Lee Lakeman
12:00pm Feminist Demands of the National Inquiry into MMIWG	12:45pm Counting Femicide in Canada Professor Myrna Dawson, The Canadian Femicide Observatory for Justice and Accountability	12:00pm Amplify our Voices: How to Create a Feminist Podcast with Florence Lepage, former producer of Ève & Pandore
2:00pm The Current Battlefields of the War on Women	2:00pm Pressing for Feminist Oversight of Police Response to Sexual Assault Sunny Marriner, Ottawa Rape Crisis Centre	2:00pm Recording the Feminist Podcast
	3:15pm Words make Worlds Poet Dominique Christina
4:00pm Methods for Feminist Organizing	4:30pm Indigenous Women Resistance to the Destruction of the Earth Kayah George (Tsleil-Waututh and Tulalip Nations), Molina Dawson Musgamagw Dzawada'enuxw Nation), and Helen Knott (Dane Zaa, Nehiyaw, and Euro descent from Prophet River First Nations)

rapereliefshelter.bc.ca